Philosophy

The Young Artist's Studio in Bremerton is a nurturing environment for children, as well as teens and adults seeking instruction in the visual arts in an exciting working art studio.

Young artist's of all ages are encouraged to explore, experiment, invent and improvise. Focusing on the process rather than the product, experience rather than the goal, we aspire to plant the seeds for a life-long love of creativity and confidence in achieving personal visions.

We have art classes in drawing, painting, print making, collage, cartooning, sculpture and papier-mâché often with a thematic reference to a particular artist, art movement or culture.

Teachers

Robin Dené Mercer, a graduate of The Art Institute of Seattle, is an illustrator, artist, storyteller and teacher with over 20 years experience.

Robin teaches the younger artists at The Young Artist's Studio.

David Mercer is a freelance illustrator and artist, who taught graphic Design, Illustration and typography at The Art Institute of Seattle for 25 years. He has also has taught at a program for middle and high school students at the Northwest School in Seattle.

David teaches the teen & adult classes at TYAS.
